

CENTRAL COAST BIONEERS

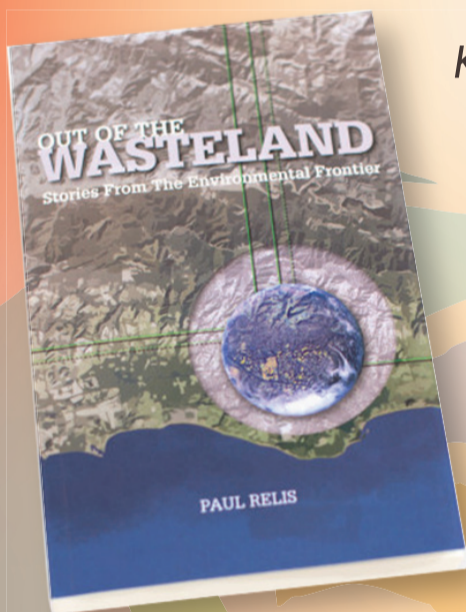

2015 CRITICAL CONVERSATION SERIES

Out of the Wasteland: a life of environmental activism on the Central Coast

Thursday, June 11
Ludwick Community Center
864 Santa Rosa St., San Luis Obispo
Parking in the back off Mill Street

Paul Relis, Founding Executive Director of the Community Environmental Council, will talk about the birth of environmentalism in Santa Barbara after the cataclysmic oil spill in 1969 and his new book Out of the Wasteland. Paul will lead us through the intricate world of government and policy, and discuss important new technologies that could free us from the Age of Oil.

KCBX News Director Randol White, who recently interviewed Relis on "Issues and Ideas," will lead the discussion.

Doors open – 6:30

Talk/discussion begins – 7:00

Book Signing – 8:30
